

Jewish South Omaha
Founding a Neighborhood, Fostering a Community

COVER PHOTO -- GROUP OF SOUTH OMAHA LADIES

Dedication to Irv Sherman; Photo of Irv

Contents

Acknowledgements	1
Introduction	1
THE OLD NEIGHBORHOOD	4
A Retailer Ahead of His Time.....	5
Story of A Store.....	6
Anchor for a Neighborhood.....	7
They Established Themselves, Then sent for the Others	10
Leaving the Old Life Behind.....	11
Help Wanted; Butchers, Picklers and Hide Shrinkers	16
Building a New Life.....	17
Upward Mobility--Claiming the Next Rung	20
Building a Business District.....	21
Mothers' Extraordinary Economies.....	25
Determined, Hard Working and Ambitious: U, V and W Street Entrepreneurs.....	28
A Well-Used Bar Mitzvah Suit.....	31
There's Gold in That Horsehair.....	32
A Cocoon-Like Sense of Safety in a Simpler Time	34
Childhood in South Omaha.....	35
Kinder! Zolzein Shah!	39
The Heart of the Neighborhood.....	40
THE WORK	42
A Livestock Legacy	43
It Was a Wonderful Life - Lee Bernstein.....	44
You'll Probably Never See This Again - Irv sherman.....	48
Morris Goldenberg, Leo Waxenberg, Irv, Mike & Mark Sherman Hardworking Lithuanian Immigrants-Carl & Ed Frohm.....	50
Nebraska Dressed Beef - Morris Erman, Mike Erman and Joe Erman.....	52
The Thriving Survivor - Greater Omaha Packing Company.....	53